Re: Contribution of pension payment to ESSSuper's Accumulation Plan

I wish to confirm that your request to deduct an amount from your fortnightly pension and pay to ESSSuper's Accumulation Plan as a personal contribution has been processed. The first deduction will be made from your pension from the next available pay period.

You can make personal contributions to the Accumulation Plan up to age 75. You can only make personal contributions between age 67 and 74 if you are working at least 40 hours in not more than 30 consecutive days in the financial year that your contribution is made or you are between age 67 and age 74 and are eligible for the Work Test Exemption.

If you wish to stop this amount from being deducted from your pension and paid to the Accumulation Plan, please advise ESSSuper in writing.

Should you have any enquiries in regard to your superannuation, please phone our Member Service Centre on 1300 655 476 (for state super members) or 1300 650 161 (for emergency services members).

Yours sincerely
