

Form 6 (Declaration) and Application for Information

Who should use this form?

You should complete this form if you are seeking information regarding a superannuation interest for Family Law matters. You must be a member, or a spouse (from 1 March 2009 this includes de facto spouse and same sex relationships) of a member who has an interest in a fund administered by ESSSuper (including the ESSS Defined Benefit Fund, Accumulation Plan (also known as ESSPLAN Accumulation Fund), Beneficiary Account, Retirement or Working Income Streams, New Scheme, Revised Scheme, SERB Scheme, Melbourne Water Corporation Employees' Superannuation Scheme, Port of Melbourne Authority Superannuation Scheme, Melbourne Transit Authority Superannuation Scheme and Transport Scheme).

You should not complete this form if you are a legal representative or financial advisor acting on behalf of a member or spouse. Section 90XZB(8) of the Family Law Act 1975 determines who an eligible person is. Please contact us for further information.

Before you start

Prior to submitting your Form 6 Declaration (Part A) and Application for Information (Part B) please ensure you have read the Family Law Information Sheet (FL131). The Family Law Information Sheet has been designed to help you understand the Family Law provisions and it contains information that will help you complete this form, as well as providing important information about the legislation and regulations that guide ESSSuper in Family Law matters. The Family Law Information Sheet is available from our website at esssuper.com.au/familylaw

You will need to complete all sections of Part A and Part B (excluding those marked optional) for this form to be valid.

If you are unsure of the options available to you or would like any further information on Family Law please call our Member Service Centre and ask to speak with a Family Law Administrator prior to submitting your application. Please also visit our website at esssuper.com.au/familylaw

Please complete this form in pen using CAPITAL letters and mark with an [X] where applicable.

How to certify documents

You do not need to seek an authorised witness to certify a photocopy of your identification if you bring your original identification for an ESSSuper staff member to sight, and a copy is made for our use only. However copies of any other documents, any photocopies sent in to us, or any copies that will be used to transfer funds from another superannuation fund to ESSSuper, must be certified as set out below:

Step 1	Step 2	Step 3
Take the original and a copy of your selected documents to an approved certifier (see list below) who will verify that the original documents have been sighted.	Ensure that the certifier sights the original and then signs the copy confirming it is a true copy of the original. The certifier must also provide their name, the date of certification and the category/occupation that allows them to certify documents.	Post your completed application form and the certified copy of your documents to ESSSuper. NOTE: We can not accept a photocopy, scanned copy via email or a fax of the certification. Please ensure the original certification is sent.
